BICYCLE UPDATE

JULY 3, 2010 | ANNA

Our beloved Brompton folding bikes were stolen from our on-site storage space! There went some of our favorite cross-training! We were about to pump up the tires and load the bikes into our CRV in preparation for a short trip to Folsom to bike the American River trail, one of our very favorites. (It runs along the river all the way from Folsom to Sacramento, about 35 miles.)

Is this one of the downsides of apartment living? (Or are burglaries a fact of life almost everywhere?)

Fortunately the claim to our insurance company resulted in a settlement check, and we intend to replace the bikes soon. But it was traumatic.

As a footnote... we made the trek to Folsom anyway, and rented bikes, but they were NOT as comfortable.
