BIKING ON THE AMERICAN RIVER TRAIL

This past weekend (February 20-22, 2015) we took our foldable bikes on a little spin on the American River trail near Folsom. One of the bikes had a flat tire so we got a late start, but it took over 6 hours from the bike repair place in Palo Alto to El Dorado Hills, where we stayed overnight. It's only about 150 miles and almost all freeway (ha!).

On Saturday we awoke to thick fog – oops again! Cold, too!

In spite of the minor inconveniences we had a great time, and the bonus on Sunday was a walk on the UC Davis campus and a delightful lunch with friends in Davis.

And yes, we realize how LUCKY we are to be able to continue to take little jaunts that present a few inconveniences.
