BLOMQUISTS VISIT CALIFORNIA, 2016 JUNE

JULY 19, 2016 | ANNA

On June 3, 2016, after Dick was in the hospital emergency room with bladder problems, we had to cancel our planned trip to Minnesota. However, we felt very lucky indeed that three of the Blomquists (all but Mike) volunteered to come to see us instead.

They were able to stay only a few days, but we tried to make the most of it. Below are photos from our excursions to Rancho San Antonio Open Space Preserve and to Bill's Cafe, one of our favorite "break-fast-food" restaurants.
