HALLOWEEN SKELETONS

NOVEMBER 6, 2017 | ANNA

Halloween Ellen and Miranda

We spent Halloween evening at the Livengood's, as we've done for many happy years.

Miranda requested pea soup, and it was delicious!

In years past the number of trick-of-treaters probably reached 100. This year the doorbell rang only six times: most of the kids have grown up and many have moved away.

Times change, but the home-made soup, good company, Charlie Brown Great Pumpkin movie, and what cute kids did stop by were as special as ever!
