VISIT TO SONOMA COUNTY CA

JULY 6, 2018 | ANNA | LEAVE A COMMENT

From July 1-4, 2018, we were looking around Sonoma County, which is in the wine country north of San Francisco.

Ellen and Rick recently bought a lot up there, in the little town of Glen Ellen. The house on the lot was destroyed in the fires of last fall. Eventually they plan to rebuild on the property.

Ellen and Rick's property in Glen Ellen. Many of the trees are recovering from the fire. The property backs up to a little creek.

We also visited Santa Rosa (Luther Burbank house and garden), Rohnert Park (Sonoma State University), Sebastopol (Luther Burbank Experiment Farm), Quarryhill Botanical Garden (near Glen Ellen), and Bodega Bay (fish dinner!).

Prayer flags at Quarryhill. The fire stopped just at the perimeter fence in the background.

We hiked at several places (including Sonoma Valley Regional Park) and ran in the Kenwood Fourth of July Footrace (3K).
