

News from Nan

NEWS 'N' VIEWS

CORONA DIARY #05: CHALK GAMES AND ART, AND CHECKING OUT CHICK-FIL-A

MAY 3, 2020 | ANNA

Chalk games and art

My shadow and chalk art at Riverview Park

In our rather dull, drab, and somewhat dangerous environment, we are lucky to be living next to a popular park that lures our neighbors, their children, and their dogs outside to have a little fun. The playground being currently closed, one of the more popular pastimes for the kids is sidewalk games and art. The one above seems to be a variation on hopscotch.

The two below seem to be pure art. Thanks, kids, for brightening our days!

Chalk art

Chalk art

Checking out Chick-Fil-A

We live near a Chick-Fil-A location, and although it's one of the most popular restaurants in the neighborhood, we hadn't tried it out before last week.

Although we sat for 20 minutes in the take-out line, we are happy to report that the chicken sandwiches were tender and yummy, and the overall experience was positive. We picnicked in a nearby park where they haven't yet put up yellow tape so we can't sit down.

In line at Chick-Fil-A

Chick-Fil-A fries

Chick-Fil-A sandwich

◀ 2020    ◀ CALIFORNIA    ◀ CHALK ART    ◀ CHALK GAME    ◀ CORONAVIRUS    ◀ COVID-19    ◀ PANDEMIC
◀ RIVERVIEW PARK    ◀ SAN JOSE